INVITATION

Dear Delegates,

Greetings from the organizing committee of 46th National Conference of Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons of India – Indore, Madhya Pradesh.

The momentum of physical conferences we regained in Mangalore after a hiatus of 2 years due to pandemic we are confident that 46th AOMSI is going to witness a grand impetus in Indore. We very humbly invite you all to our 46th National Conference of AOMSI from 17th to 19th November 2022.

As you all gear up to attend and witness a grand galaxy of renowned surgeons and academicians coming under the same roof to exchange knowledge and surgical skills, we are preparing to make this conference a memorable event for all of you. The highlight of this conference is going to be the collaborative support from guest societies, i.e. International Association of Maxillofacial Surgeons as well as European Association of Craniomaxillofacial Surgeons (EACMFS).

The venue for conference is Brilliant Convention Centre, the largest convention centre of Madhya Pradesh which is centrally located within the city.

Be it the interesting scientific deliberations, pre-conference workshops, mega trade fair, conference hospitality and the famous food of Indore, we are going to leave no stone unturned to make sure you have a soul fulfilling trip to the heart of India – Madhya Pradesh.

The Heart of India is calling you...Make sure you register well in time to avail exciting offers.

TOUR ATTRACTIONS IN & AROUND INDORE

About Indore

Indore – a city which has many titles to its credit. Some call it ‘Mini Mumbai’, others call it ‘The food capital of India’ and the Government of India calls it ‘The cleanest city of India’.

Founded by the Holkar Dynasty and with a very recent history, Indore is a melting pot of cultures and ideas. On one side is the traditional old Indore which has preserved its rich heritage and on the other side is a bustling city with enormous growth potential and opportunities in Manufacturing, IT, Healthcare and Textile sector. Indore has got excellent connectivity with most cities of India by air, land and railways.

A peaceful demeanour with a progressive outlook aptly defines Indore – the pulse of Madhya Pradesh.

Connectivity

Devi Ahilya Bai Holkar International Airport connects Indore to most cities of India along with few international destinations.

Indore Railway station falls on the Western Railways and has excellent train connectivity with all corners of India.

Indore is criss-crossed by Delhi-Agra-Mumbai Highway, Ahmedabad-Indore-Nagpur Highway, thus connecting Indore by road to some of the major cities of India.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Apart from the famous food street '56 Dukaan', Indore has the much-famed Rajwada Palace of Holkars, Lalbagh Palace, Kaanch Mandir, Khajrana Ganesh Temple.

Have you heard of the famed 'Sarafa' market of Indore? A jewellery business epicentre in daylight which transforms into a gastronomic food street open till late night and offering food options from every corner of India. Do not miss an opportunity to witness the food safari at 'sarafa'.

Nearby attractions like Ujjain, Mahakaleshwar Jyotirling, Omkareshwar Jyotirling are one hour drive and can be done as a single day trip.

For history lovers, Maheshwar - the capital seat of great queen Ahilya Mata Holkar on the banks of river Narmada and Mandu – the witness to stories of Rani Rupmati and Baaz Bahadur are also one hour drive from Indore city.

For nature lovers, tiger reserves like Pench, Kanha, Bandhavgarh, Panna, Satpura, Pachmarhi and Ranthambhore are well connected by train and road from Indore.

So, whether you love shopping, nature, history, culture or pure leisure, Indore offers an option for everyone to make memories.
