President's Corner: A Message from Dr. Gabriele Millesi

After seven years and 25 issues of our enlightening Face to Face® magazine, a great era comes to an end because Javier Gonzales Lagunas will step down as editor in chief. The Board of Directors and the IAOMS headquarters staff team is extremely grateful to Javier's long-term, intense, and time-consuming efforts, to provide IAOMS with such a brilliant product. Face to Face® is a true mirror of our international membership and our global representation in the field of OMS. The contents and lay out always was a firework of brilliant topics and ideas-- difficult to top! Therefore, we are incredibly grateful for Deepak Krishnan's willingness to step in as new editor in chief and we wish him great success. A big thank you to Javier and welcome to Deepak Krishnan as the new editor in chief! For IAOMS and all our members, Face to Face® magazine is one of the most prestigious figureheads of our Association and our field of OMS. We are looking forward to an ongoing success story, even in difficult Corona times.

Over the last several months, we have witnessed communities across the globe coming together to battle obstacles set in place by COVID-19. On behalf of the IAOMS Board of Directors, Executive Committee and Chicago staff, we are incredibly grateful for the IAOMS community, and the OMFS specialty, for continuing to stay engaged, for continuing to seek education, and for finding new methods of connecting virtually.

It is our hope that we meet again in-person soon, but until it is safe, please know that we are hard at work developing new programs and opportunities to further our mission; to improve the quality and safety of health care worldwide through the advancement of patient care, education and research in oral and maxillofacial surgery.

Thank you for participating in our e-learning programs, including the Stay Connected Series, the IAOMS Virtual Conference, and our IAOMS Scientific Webinars.

Stay healthy, Stay Safe and Stay Positive.

Dr. Gabriele Millesi
IAOMS President
